FATE OF FORMER CROWN PRINCE UNKNOWN

SEEMINGLY RELIABLE INFORMATION, BUT NOT CONFIRMED, IS THAT HE WAS SHOT AND KILLED BY THE FRONTIER GUARDS WHILE ATTEMPTING TO ESCAPE INTO HOLLAND.

FORMER EMPEROR A FUGITIVE IN HOLLAND KAISERIN HELD IN CUSTODY AT POTSDAM

Problems of Peace Confronting Nations Recently So Heavily Involved in War But Little Less Than Those of War.

Conflicting reports come from Europe as to the fate of the former German crown prince. Dispatches from London declare he was shot and killed Monday by frontier guards while trying to escape into Holland.

However, a dispatch from The Hague under today's date says that the former crown prince has arrived at Maastricht, southern Holland.

The former German emperor is at the castle of Amerongen, Holland, while his wife, the wife of the former crown prince and other princesses are in Potsdam under the care of the soldiers' and workers' council.

PROBLEMS OF PEACE SERIOUS

Turning from war to peace so suddenly that the transition has been almost bewildering the nations which have been embroiled in the war are hastily taking stock of the situation and planning measures to meet the problems of the future which appear to be no less serious than those of the past.

INSIST ON EARLY CONFERENCE

Germany is insistent on its demands that the peace conference be held at once. Dr. W. S. Solf, the foreign secretary, says that only an early settlement of the questions arising out of the cessation of hostilities can save the German people from famine.

In the interim, however, the Germans are deprived of even civil administration in the Rhine land regions which will be taken over by the allies until the final adjustment of the results of the conflict.

ALLIES TO GOVERN TERRITORY

Allied and United States military authorities will govern the country from which Germany has agreed to withdraw her defeated legions. This new supplement to the armistice agreement, it is announced, is accompanied by the surrender by Germany of all her submarines. Under the original armistice agreement only 160 U-boats were to be turned over to the allies.

SPECTRE OF ANARCHY ABROAD

The grim spectre of Bolshevism has appeared out of the turmoil of revolution in Germany and has received recognition at Berlin. This would seem to indicate that the true socialist movement has taken a new turn, the strength of which is so great that it cannot be ignored. Up until a short time ago the Bolshevik element was so small in Germany that it appeared to be negligible.

MAY REMAIN IN RUSSIA AWHILE

To guard against disorder in Russian provinces occupied by German troops the allies have agreed that Germany need not call these forces home until it is considered safe to do so.

It has been officially announced at Vienna that Emperor Charles the First has abdicated. This confirms cable advices received yesterday that he had given up his throne. The latest of the minor rulers of the German States to quit his throne is Prince Heinrich the 27th of Reuss.

Only on July 8th the resignation of the Chilean cabinet was submitted to the President but two days later it was reported that the ministers had consented to remain in office.

Allied High Command Sends Wireless to Germans to Hurry the Work of Moving Back

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, November 13.—The allied high command has sent to the German high command by French wireless a message that there can be no modification of the conditions of the armistice including the annexes at this time.

It is added that a supplementary period of 24 hours for the evacuation of Belgium, Luxembourg and Alsace-Lorraine has been added to the 14 day stipulations in the original text so as to permit the text to reach German headquarters at the desired time.

Washington, November 13.—Switzerland's general strike which commenced this week has objects which are revolutionary and political rather than economic and has had direct incitement from the Bolshevik organization in Russia, according to Hans Sulzer, Swiss minister to the United States.

Mr. Sulzer sketched circumstances leading up to the strike today for the Associated Press. Though without information as to the progress of the movement he expressed confidence that it would fail to break down the present Swiss government which he said had the support of the overwhelming proportion of the population.

WILLIAM GIVES AN EXPLANATION OF HIS FLIGHT

(By Associated Press Cable)

London, November 13.—A published statement which the former German emperor wishes to be regarded as his reason for going to Holland says that the journey was not a flight according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Daily Telegram. His departure from Germany was activated by a desire to facilitate the work of the new government.

(By Associated Press Cable) The Hague, November 13.—Former Emperor Chas. Empress Zita and their family left Vienna at nine o'clock for Eckartsau.

FOCH WILL NOT CHANGE ARMISTICE PROVISIONS

Appeal of Germans to Great Marshal Are Unavailing

Military Disarmament is to be One of Fact Duly Executed

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, November 13.—Appeals of the German envoys to Marshal Foch for modification of the terms of surrender were of little avail. This is indicated by the amended terms which were published today.

Close survey of the amendments show few deviations in essential details from the original draft which was announced to the nation Monday by President Wilson in an address before Congress.

The amended terms in some respect favor the defeated enemy, but other provisions completely offset the slight favors granted.

Chief among the changes made by Marshal Foch was the inclusion of a provision under which Germany is forced to give up her entire fleet of submarines.

The original terms as to submarines provided for the turning over to the allies and the United States of only 160 U-boats.

The amendments further provide that the German submarine fleet must be surrendered within 14 days.

Another of the 18 terms amended provides that the designated units of the German fleet which are to be surrendered must be prepared to leave their ports within seven days after the signing of the armistice.

German troops in East Africa are required to evacuate that territory instead of surrendering and the Germans are required to surrender 150,000 railroad cars instead of 50,000.

Secretary Lansing handed to Minister Sulzer of Switzerland today a reply to a note delivered yesterday transmitting a message from Chancellor Ebert urgently requesting that the President inform him by wireless whether the United States would send foodstuffs under such conditions.

The President called attention to his announcement in addressing Congress Monday of the resolution of the Supreme War Council assuring the people of the Central Empires that everything possible will be done to relieve distressing want and that such steps are to be taken immediately to organize the efforts in the same systematic manner they were organized for Belgium.

He concluded with the promise to act promptly upon receiving the necessary assurance.

President Wilson Answers Germany's Plea Assuring Observance of War Council's Guarantee

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, November 13.—Rumania's reported new declaration of war against Germany is interpreted here as preliminary to measures to disarm and drive out the German army under Von Mackensen which has been oppressing the Rumanians since the treaty of Bucharest, causing the helplessness of the population.

Word reached here today through official channels that the reorganized government in Rumania is headed by General Coanda.

RAISED BY ALLIES

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Washington, November 13.—Germany's appeal for food has been answered by President Wilson with the promise that he will take up with the allies immediately the question of sending supplies if assurances can be given that order will be maintained in Germany and an equitable distribution of food guaranteed.

Secretary Lansing handed to Minister Sulzer of Switzerland today a reply to a note delivered yesterday transmitting a message from Chancellor Ebert urgently requesting that the President inform him by wireless whether the United States would send foodstuffs under such conditions.

FORMER FAYETTE MAN AT HEAD OF LIVE STOCK SHOW

O. T. Henkle, formerly of this city, is directing Genius of Great Chicago Live Stock Exposition and Annual Horse Show to be held in Chicago.

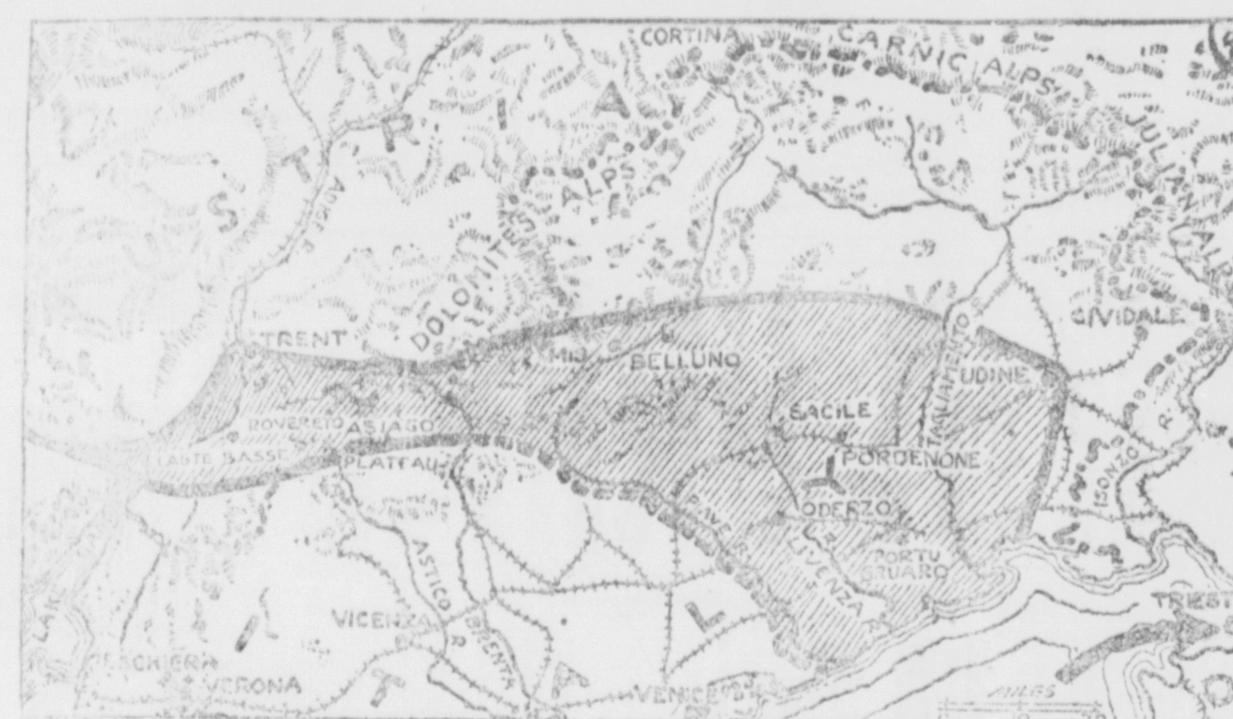

Mr. O. T. Henkle, general manager of the Union Stock Yards & Transit Co., of Chicago, formerly of this city and a brother of Messrs. A. E. and A. C. Henkle, of this city, and of Mrs. Jas. Perrill, of the Devon road, will have charge of the great annual Live Stock Exposition at Chicago Nov. 30th to Dec. 7th, inclusive and Horse Show which will be held at the same time. These two events, which require real genius to direct them, have been world renowned for many years, and the one this year promises to eclipse those of recent years.

The directors of The Union Stock Yard and Transit Company, of which the former Fayette county man is the directing head, also control what is known as The Central Manufacturing District, of Chicago, and among the many new buildings and factories recently erected in this district are the tremendous warehouses of the Quartermaster's Department of the U. S. Army. This structure is one of the most extensive building projects undertaken in this country during the past year.

Washington and Fayette county take just pride in the success of her former citizen, Mr. Henkle, who for sometime has been the general manager of one of the greatest business enterprises in the middle west.

Regarding the big live stock exposition The Chicago News of recent date says:

"The pick of the finest herds in the United States and Canada has been listed for the International Live Stock exposition, which takes place at the international amphitheater and adjacent buildings from Nov. 30 to Dec. 7. Manager B. H. Heide announced today that more than 8,000 cattle, horses, sheep and swine have been nominated.

"Canada and the northwest will be represented by larger entries than ever before," said Mr. Heide. "With the allies depending on us for meats, and in fact the whole world centered on our live stock production, the show this year will have a broader significance than heretofore."

"Despite the prevailing higher railroad rates, Mr. Heide is confident that the out of town attendance will be up to its usual strength.

"The horse show will be staged nightly under the direction of O. T. Henkle."

HOW A SALESMAN SUFFERED

R. J. Porter, Sterling, Colo., writes: "I suffered with a painful, weak back. As a traveling salesman I had to stoop frequently to pick up my grips, and the pain when I straightened up was awful. WILL WIDEN LEVEE AND CHANGE TURN

The County Commissioners, at their Tuesday session, took steps for widening the levee and roadway and widening the turn on the Good Hope ad Greenfield pike where the road bears off abruptly to the west and crosses Paint creek.

The levee is very narrow and has been the scene of a number of serious accidents.

Still more dangerous is the turn where the road bears abruptly to the west, and where County Surveyor-elect Frank M. Kennedy nearly met death many years ago when the automobile in which he was riding went over the steep embankment at the turn.

The levee will be widened sufficiently to permit two vehicles to pass with greater ease, and the turn will be widened by moving the inside fence back some distance and making a much easier and less dangerous turn.

The change will require a considerable fill and the earth for this fill will be cut from the hill north of the present dangerous turn, so that in eliminating the dangers of the road way, the steep grade will be reduced considerably at the same time.

NATIONAL DEFENSE LAUNCHES CAMPAIGN FOR XMAS SHOPPING

The Ohio Branch Council of National Defense has launched a campaign on educational measures with regard to Christmas shopping.

The Ohio Council by resolution set December the fifth as the date after which no Christmas gifts should be mailed or expressed.

The council presents the following schedule to be worked out in this Christmas Schedule.

(a) Buy Useful Gifts—Point out to the public that, in order to be "useful" in the only sense which is proper in war-time, an article must be not only useful in itself, but must be immediately useful to the particular person who gets it. This presumes a considerable degree of intimacy between persons exchanging gifts, and if carried out, will eliminate all forms of promiscuous giving. Note that, in calling for the purchase of useful gifts, the National Council has specifically excepted toys.

(b) Buy Early—Make the public understand that merchants have agreed that they will not increase the number of their employees nor increase the hours of labor in view of Christmas trade. Unless Christmas shopping is spread out over the months of October and November and December, an intolerable situation will be created. Keep the extraordinary reason for early shopping which exists this year constantly before the public. Make people feel that late shopping is a distinctly unpatriotic act.

(c) Send Early—Point out to the public that our transportation facilities are relatively inelastic and are already overburdened with essential war business. Christmas packages must not be allowed to congest the transportation facilities during the late Fall.

In addition to a general appeal on behalf of sending early, the following methods will be useful:

(2). The public should be told not to send bulky articles by express, freight, or mail under any circumstances.

(d) Don't burden local delivery services—Explain to the public that the merchants have been requested by the government rigidly to curtail delivery services, and that the merchants expressly promised the Government to keep down delivery services in connection with Christmas trade.

Advise the public, therefore, to carry what they can; never to expect special deliveries; to avoid use of the local mails or special messengers by delivering gifts personally where ever possible.

WORK WITH MERCHANTS

See that every merchant in your State understands the fact that merchants have assumed a solemn obligation with regard to modifications in their normal Christmas practices.

Representatives of leading industries and retail interests appeared before the Council of National Defense on August 26, under the auspices of the United States Chamber of Commerce. They made certain definite assurances on behalf of retail trade. These assurances were as follows:

(a) That merchants will not increase their working force by reason of the holiday business over the average force employed by them throughout the year, nor increase the normal working hours of their force during the Christmas season; the term "normal working hours" means normal hours throughout the year,—not hours during previous Christmas seasons.

(b) That, beginning in September, merchants will use a part of their advertising space and will otherwise assist in educating the consuming public to buy useful articles, and to buy and send gifts early;

(c) That merchants will comply fully with the deliveries program of the Conservation Division of the War Industries Board.

ADVERTISING OF FARM SALES HAS BEGUN NEW EPOCH

Today marks a new epoch in the advertising of farm sales in Fayette county and in fact in Ohio.

And the man to begin the new epoch is Mr. William Thomas Steers, of Good Hope, formerly in the banking business in Good Hope and who has always realized the truth of the old adage that "advertising pays."

Mr. Steers, going on the basis that the time has passed when proper results may be obtained by the use of a few posters and hand bills in the advertising of a general public sale, has contracted for three full page insertions in The Herald of the advertisement of his big public sale which is to be held on Tuesday, November 19, a few miles south of Good Hope and the first insertion of the advertisement will be found on another page of today's issue.

Never before in Fayette county and in fact in the state, has a farm sale been so extensively advertised as that now being advertised by Mr. Steers. "I have a large amount of mighty good live stock and farm equipment and I want the people to know it; there is no way that I can think of that is so good as the method I am using" is the way Mr. Steers looks at the proposition. The exceptionally large amount of newspaper advertising he is carrying is in addition to the usual supply of bills and posters, the latter being used chiefly in places of business.

Other farmers are also realizing the vital importance of a well-advertised sale as a money making proposition, and are using the same modern method instituted by Mr. Steers except on a smaller scale.

The Herald carries full information of Mr. Steers' sale into 1662 homes in this city, and into 1433 farm homes in the county and adjacent territory, so that virtually everyone will know of his sale and just what he is offering.

Fagged Out Women Vinol is What You Need

If all the tired, overworked, run-down women in this community could realize how our delicious Vinol, which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycophosphates supplies the vital elements necessary to enrich the blood and create working strength, we wouldn't be able to supply the demand.

Dukedom, Tenn.

The Americans were not so cautious. As the barrage died, ending in a final husky rumble in the distance from the big guns, runners went springing along the fire line. Instantly comprehending, the whole line of doughboys leaped from trenches, fox holes and shell craters, splitting the unaccustomed silence with a shrill cheer. The roar of voices was like an outburst at some great college contest in America when contestant scores a classic play.

Strange to relate, the defeated enemy joined vociferously in the cheering. The world war was finished.

At 1 minute before 11 it would have meant death to show oneself above shelter. Not more than a minute after the hour the rolling plain was alive with cheering, shouting men, friend and enemy alike. Not many minutes later Germans and Americans were coming along the narrow stretch of ground so fiercely fought over, some shyly and awkwardly, like embarrassed schoolboys.

In addition to a general appeal on behalf of sending early, the following methods will be useful:

(2). The public should be told not to send bulky articles by express, freight, or mail under any circumstances.

Lend a Hand

Now that the great curtain of secrecy which so long prevented the world from knowing the exact conditions has rolled away, with the signing of armistice terms, it is found that the masses of the people of Germany are in a wretchedly impoverished condition.

Following rapidly after the cessation of hostilities—only a matter of hours—an appeal for assistance was sent to the people of the United States.

What a great many people have forecasted for a long time is proven, now that we have the facts, to have been absolutely correct. Germany has been for some time a mere shell behind the army lines.

The once mighty and prosperous empire of Bismarck, Von Moltke and the first William has been reduced to woe and beggary by William third and the war lords.

The allied and associated nations have yet a tremendous task ahead of them now in assisting the stricken people to get on their feet so that they will be able to sustain themselves.

A generous, just and magnanimous world may extend the helping hand now to the starving masses, but the responsible leaders must pay the price of the wretchedness they have wrought. Justice demands that and will be content with no less. World peace now requires that order be restored and suffering alleviated among the masses in Germany as soon as possible.

The spectre of anarchy stalks close in the rear of hunger and suffering and anarchy in any nation is dangerous to all the world. It's like a poisonous weed in the neighbor's field—the seed blows broadcast.

We must mark the difference between the wrongs of the leaders and the sufferings of the masses and lend a hand for our own good as well as from principles of humanity.

Judge Newby Defeated

Among the results of the elections last week, not exactly local but which come close home to us here in Fayette county, was the defeat of Judge Cyrus Newby of Highland county for common pleas judge.

We do not desire to find any fault with Judge Newby's successor who, we must presume, will fill the position to which he has been elected, in a highly satisfactory manner to both the members of the bar and to those having business in the courts. Indeed, we congratulate Mr. McBride and wish him every success.

At the same time we cannot avoid a feeling of keen disappointment over the defeat of Judge Newby, who for nearly thirty years now has served the people of this and adjoining counties with such splendid ability. Judge Newby has for years ranked at the top among the great jurists of the state. He has established, during his long term of service, a reputation for ability and impartiality on the common pleas court rarely enjoyed by anyone who has held that most important of all the judgements.

The legal profession regrets that the electors of Highland county have brought Judge Newby's term of service to an end and the people generally, who had learned to regard him as a permanent part of the courts, in this section, can scarcely realize that next February he will retire.

The Sun

It is quite probable that a greater number of people throughout the United States saw, with their own eyes, the glorious sunrise on Monday morning than ever before in the history of the nation and it is also quite probable that hundreds of thousands of people were up and around Monday morning waiting for the sun to come up and get on the job that never enjoyed that experience before.

The people of America were in a fever of expectancy all through Sunday and late into the evening awaiting Germany's answer to Marshal Foch. They retired late and slept but lightly during the night only to be summoned from a "doze" by the pealing of the victory bells and the screaming of whistles proclaiming that the great hour had come.

When the coming sun, rising up out of the east, rolled back the black curtain of night revealing the blue dome of the heavens studded with golden stars, later on painting the stripes of the flag in the eastern heavens in exquisitely delicate streamers of red across the fleecy white clouds, finally rolled up in a red ball of fire, it looked upon a nation awake and delirious with joy proclaiming the victory of liberty and the end of strife which for more than four years had held an anxious world in an agony of grief.

Never will the sun shine down upon happier people than it did on Monday morning when millions looked toward the east in confident expectation and awaited only the light to usher the greatest day in history.

POEM FOR TODAY

(Cincinnati Times-Star.)

The first of these lyrics was written by Lieut. Col. John McCrea, a member of the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, while taking part in the second battle of Ypres. The body of Lieut. McCrea now lies buried in Flanders fields. The request he made to take up the flaming torch has been granted and Monday the principles for which he and countless thousands gave up their lives triumphed on the fields of Flanders.

The Appeal

(By Lieut. Col. John McCrea.)

In Flanders fields the poppies grow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarred heard amid the guns below.

We are dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow.
Loved and were loved, but now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe—
To you, from failing hands, we throw
The torch. Be yours to lift it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

The Promise

(By C. B. Galbreath.)

Librarian of State of Ohio
In Flanders fields the cannon boom
And fitful flashes light the gloom,
While up above, like eagles, fly
The fierce destroyers of the sky;
With stains the earth wherein you lie

Is redder than the poppy bloom,
In Flanders fields.

Sleep on, ye brave. The shrieking shell,
The quaking trench, the startled yell
The fury of the battle hell
Shall wake you not, for all is well.
Sleep peacefully, for all is well.

Your flaming torch aloft we bear,
With burning heart an oath we swear
To keep the faith, to fight it through
To crush the foe or sleep with you
In Flanders fields.

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

The Fulfillment

(By Joseph A. Clark.)

Member Local Board N. 9
In Flanders fields the poppies grow,
Tis quiet 'mid the sunset glow.
The larks are singing, far on high
Above the crosses as they fly,
A requiem to those below.

Sleep on, ye brave, who gave your all.
The shrieking shell, the bugle call,
No more shall wake you from your rest

In Flanders fields.

The flaming torch aloft we bear.
We've kept the faith. The battle o'er.
The foe is crushed. We've fought it through
Now, rest in peace, God be with you
Who lie asleep, where poppies score
In Flanders fields.

News of Interest to Women

Not only in the distinctive interest of the anniversary but also in beauty of appointment and elaborateness of entertainment the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Elias A. McCoy, celebrated on Tuesday, records itself the notable social event of the Fall season in this community.

In the same home where twenty-five years ago the silver wedding was celebrated, with no link in the family chain broken and surrounded by the loving care of children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy received the congratulations of two hundred and fifty relatives and friends.

The autumn had lent a golden day in perfect sympathy with the anniversary and while daylight lasted, brilliant sunshine touched to new radiance the golden blossoms which filled the home and gave added brightness to the assemblage.

The season's favorite flower, the chrysanthemum, large shaggy ones, the ponpon and the button variety, all in wonderful golden shades, transformed the home into a bower of floral beauty. In the parlor, where the bride and groom gave most cordial response to the good wishes extended, tall white wicker floor baskets held great masses of bloom, while large and small wicker baskets, many of them the gifts of friends, were effectively placed in all the rooms.

Not only is the family connection of both Mr. and Mrs. McCoy very large, long years of prominent residence in this community has given to them also wide acquaintance and many friends and the curtailing of invitations was a difficult matter. The problem was admirably solved, although necessarily on an elaborate scale, by the inviting of the brothers and sisters to a dinner at high noon, of the nieces and nephews and a very limited number of intimates, to an evening dinner and holding "open house" throughout the afternoon.

It was a very happy arrangement, providing for the close intimacy of the family gathering and giving to friends a much appreciated opportunity.

All afternoon people came and went, finding the bride and bridegroom of half a century ago as "fit" as if an event of the past decade.

The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine, beaded in pearls, her bridal bouquet of golden rose buds and small chrysanthemums.

Assisting in the hospitalities were the daughters, Mrs. James Hays, Mrs. Earl McLean, Mrs. Earl Barnett and Miss Myrtle McCoy and Mrs. Walter Hays, wife of the oldest grandson.

In the dining room, where a dainty collation was served throughout the afternoon, the assistants were Mrs. Frank McCoy, of Akron, Mrs. H. C. Ireland, Mrs. Troy Junk, Misses Mary Craig, Marie Melvin and Edith Hamm.

The tea table was a picture, with large center basket of white wicker, laced with golden ribbon, and filled with chrysanthemums in gold and bronze tints and rich mahogany oak leaves, the handle tied with big gauze bow. At each end were large copper samovars and yellow candies, in brass candle sticks, with crystal prisms, shedding soft effulgence—candles lighted the buffet, banked with chrysanthemums.

Family interest culminated in the dinners, especially that of the noon hour when brothers and sisters and their wives and husbands were seated together for a reunion of rare delight.

The elegant turkey dinner was seasoned by the recollecting of reminiscences and the toasting of the happy couple.

The best man at the wedding, Mr. John T. Cline, of Frankfort and his wife, were the only ones present of the original wedding party. It had been a double wedding at the home of Mrs. McCoy's father Mr. Samuel Willis, in Frankfort, her sister, now having crossed the bar, the other bride. Mr. and Mrs. McCoy had come at once to the McCoy home farm, now owned by Mr. R. C. Hunt, where they began their housekeeping.

Their married happiness has been rounded out in the devoted affection of six children, Mrs. Leota Hays, Willis, Jess, Mrs. Corda McLean, Mrs. Iva Barnett and Myrtle McCoy; eight grandchildren and one great grandchild, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hays. All were present and with them the brothers and sister, Mr. MartL. McCoy, Mr. F. M. McCoy, Mrs. J. A. Melvin, Mrs. Mary McCoy, Mrs. Allie James, of Cleveland, and their families; Mrs. Martin Junk, Mr. Samuel Willis, of Dayton.

Rev. T. H. Hare, with ready wit, filled the role of toastmaster and the responses were apropos and clever, keeping the guests on the qui vive with merriment.

Rev. Arthur P. Cherrington made response to "The Glory of the Occasion." Mr. O. E. Gwinn of Columbus, formerly residing here and a neighbor of the McCoys, answered "To the Groom as a Friend"; Mr. Martin Junk toasted the bride-groom "As a Brother-in-law" and Mr. Mart L. McCoy, the bride "As a Sister-in-Law."

The bride-groom delighted the guests with his pertinent responses. Among the unusual happenings recounted was the fact that the same barber, James Jackson, of this city, who had barbecued Mr. McCoy on his wedding morning, performed the same duties on his fiftieth anniversary.

The younger contingent of the family, numbering seventy-five, were served with an equally elaborate dinner at six o'clock. For this small tables were used, each one decorated with small wicker baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and having pretty chrysanthemum place cards.

Throughout the entire affair Miss Mazi Kessler's orchestra played most beautifully, adding immeasurably to the inspiration of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy were the recipients of a large number of very handsome wedding gifts, appropriate to the occasion, as well as gold pieces and flowers.

Guests who came from a distance were Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Hare, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Gwinn, Columbus, Mrs. Frank McCoy, Akron; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Beacher Cline, Mrs. Jane Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humes, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Junk, Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Roy McCoy, Mt. Sterling, Mr. Samuel Willis, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Williamsport; Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Divens, Good Hope; Mrs. Laura Willis, Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Junk, Mt. Sterling.

The Browning Club held its first formal session this fall at the Federated Club rooms Tuesday night, with a large attendance and an interest which forecast a lively year.

The president, Mrs. Julia Dahl, being detained at her home by illness, the vice-president, Mrs. Julia H. Kennedy, presided. A good opening program was presented by the Department of History, with Mrs. C. A. Teeters, vice-chairman, in the chair.

There were two excellent papers. Mrs. Anna Bush Coffman presented the subject of "American Interest in Popular Government Abroad." America, in view of the elimination of time and space, has been brought closer in touch with the old forms of government as they affect foreign countries and realizes the important part our own institutions play in the preservation of our government. Mrs. Coffman's paper teemed with interest and information.

"With our soldiers in France" was the theme of a charmingly arranged paper, honoring our boys in heart some tribute by Miss Mae Duffee. Twice Miss Duffee introduced two of her most affecting poems, closing with her latest poem, an ode to peace, written Monday.

Mrs. F. G. Carpenter made an exceedingly interesting little talk upon the Young Women's Christian Association in connection with the war campaign.

With hearts saddened at the thought of the death of one of the Browning Club's prominent members, the women listened to a very beautiful tribute to Miss Florence Ogle, given by Mrs. Carpenter prior to her presentation of resolutions honoring Miss Ogle on behalf of the Past Presidents.

The singing of "America" closed the meeting.

Mrs. William Boynton Gage extended the hospitality of the Presbyterian Manse at the first meeting of the Mission Study Class Tuesday afternoon.

After the hour of study and instruction Mrs. Gage departed from the usual custom and served chocolate and cakes while the women lingered in social pleasure.

Pink teas and all "fourth meals" served at social affairs, clubs and societies, are now placed under the food ban.

The American people have been asked by the Food Administration to discontinue afternoon teas, theater supper parties and all meals except the usual three a day. Conservation of cereals and sugar now is of vital importance, said the appeal, which characterized the consumption of sandwiches, cakes and sugar at "extra" meals as an unnecessary waste of foodstuffs.

"While the Food Administration recognizes the value of social gathering where refreshments are served," the statement said, "it believes that the hours for these functions can and should be so regulated that they take the place of one of the three regular meals. Indeed, such a meal may well serve as a lesson in intelligent food conservation."

"In France and England no meals are served after 9:30 o'clock at night and in both countries public eating places are closed for a definite period during the afternoon. The Food Administration now asks the United States to fall in line and cut out theater suppers, afternoon teas and all 'fourth meals', and make the banquet, club luncheons or church suppers a simple substitute for one of the three daily meals."

The Federated Club room was in gala attire, with pretty decorations of flags of the allies waving and new pictures of musicians on the walls Tuesday afternoon when the Cecilians held the initial meeting of the new year.

The necessary health restrictions interfered with the first program, launching the series of recitals which will present the music of the Allies. It was hoped that each program would be confined to the music of the nation chosen for that day, but the conditions compelled the offering of two programs, combining English, Irish and Scotch music. But it was such a beautiful program, so charmingly versatile and admirably rendered that there was rich compensation.

The following programs were presented:

A part of the after noon was given to the beginning of the special work which the Cecilians are taking up—drill on the National song of the Allies and the Star Spangled Banner.

It was gratifying to the club to receive the names of several associate members. The associate membership list is open to all who wish to share the Cecilian programs. Tickets may be secured at any time at the Cecilian meetings.

The next meeting will be held next Tuesday, November, nineteenth.

Mr. Herman Crow of Constantine, Michigan, was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. A. Wood, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. T. H. Craig is in Columbus today to attend the meeting of the Ohio Retail Dry Goods Merchants.

Mrs. Harley T. Wilkin is entertaining her mother, Mrs. W. N. Bean, and sister, Mrs. Howard Tolle, of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Ed Scoggins was called to Columbus Wednesday by the death of her nephew, Hudson McKee.

Miss Grace Arehart of Bowersville, was the guest of Miss Elizabeth Hendryx.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll and Miss Pearl Smith, of Wilmington, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Downey.

Mrs. Edward Clark, wife of Capt. Clark, of the 37th Division now in France, arrived from her home in Plano the first of the week to be the guest of Mrs. Josephine Kerr.

Mr. C. Graham Beckel spent the first of the week in Columbus on business.

Miss Marie Summers goes to Martins Ferry, O., Saturday, to enter the Hospital there, to take the Nurses Training Course.

Mrs. Russel Townsley and little daughter, Mary Jane, came over from Lancaster this afternoon, to visit Mrs. Townsley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett King.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan and son, Norbert, have returned to Columbus, after spending a few days at the McDonald home, called by the death of Mr. Ryan's sister, Mrs. John McDonald.

Mrs. Charles Minshall accompanied Mr. Minshall down from Columbus to visit her aunt, Miss Sallie Pursell, and friends here.

Mrs. Charles Kibbler of New Holland, was a shopping visitor here today.

Mr. C. W. Shaffer, manager of the shoe department at Jess W. Smith's store, spent the past two days at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. J. Hoover near Plain City, where he was called by the sad death of his niece, Miss Lucile Hoover, who was accidentally shot, Sunday noon, by her father.

In order to make up some of the time lost when the city schools were closed during the recent epidemic, school begins ten minutes earlier, both in the morning and at noon, 8:20 a.m. and 12:50 p.m., thus saving 20 minutes each day.

Mid-year examinations will be omitted this year, thereby gaining a week, and the Holiday vacation will cover nine days, school closing on Friday, December 29th and resuming again on Monday after Christmas, December 30th, teaching on New Years, saving about five days.

With the omission of Spring vacation another five days will be saved, and only Thanksgiving Day will be observed this year, instead of both Thursday and Friday.

By the lengthening of the day 20 minutes, a gain of eight days will be made, and by omitting both mid-year examinations and Spring vacation, shortening of the Holidays and saving a day at Thanksgiving, a total gain of 24 days, practically five weeks will be made equaling the time lost.

Miss McLain trusts that the parents will heartily cooperate in this plan and keep their children in school regularly.

Mr. W. T. Holmes is moving his family to Dayton, where he has a position with the National Cash Register Co. His granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth Holmes, joined him the first of the week to begin school and Mrs. Holmes goes the last of the week.

Mrs. Harry Beale, Mrs. Waldo and Miss Waldo, spent Wednesday shopping here.

Mrs. W. B. Rodgers is spending a couple of days in Cincinnati.

Miss Rose McLean has as her morning guests, Mrs. L. C. McLean and daughter Helena of Magnetic Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett McLean of Greenfield.

Mrs. E. Culbertson of Millidgeville, received a card Tuesday notifying her of the arrival overseas of her son, Corporal Clair Culbertson.

Mrs. Harry Beale, Mrs. Waldo and Miss Waldo, spent Wednesday shopping here.

Mrs. W. B. Rodgers is spending a couple of days in Cincinnati.

Miss Sherwin is planning with the heads of the eight state departments of work in the Woman's Committee for a conference in Columbus early in December to plan for the next year's work.

"Women should realize their responsibility for stabilizing public sentiment during the trying time in the early days of peace," said Miss Sherwin today, "and the still more difficult months following peace when the problems of reconstruction stampede us. I believe that the women in every one of our eighty-eight counties in Ohio will remain faithfully at their posts of work, undistracted by the inevitable temptation to let down. They will hold their meetings and do their work as usual, realizing that the coming of peace makes it necessary for them to intensify their efforts in preparation for reconstruction."

It is expected that the body will be brought back here for burial, but nothing definite is yet known.

Mrs. Sherwin believes that every bit of experience obtained by the nine hundred units of the Woman's Committee in Ohio during the last year, while building up program for home defense, has been in the nature

SENATOR PARRETT IS COMPLIMENTED

Leadership of Senate May Devolve on Fayette County Man in Crisis Over Taxation Legislation

In the political gossip of John T. Bourke appearing in the Cleveland Leader last Sunday are the following paragraphs of particular local interest, because of the compliment paid to our fellow citizen, Mr. Frank C. Parrett, Senator-elect, since the election November 5th, from this district.

In complementing Mr. Parrett, the Cleveland Leader correspondent has also complimented the voters of this district because of their good judgment in choosing a man of Mr. Parrett's high caliber to represent them in the Senate of the State.

Speaking of the leadership in the Senate and our newly elected Senator Mr. Bourke says:

Two of these men are already mentioned for leadership in Senate and House, respectively. They are Senator-elect Frank C. Parrett, of Fayette county, for president pro tem of the Senate, and Carl R. Kimball, of Lake county, for speaker of the House.

Parrett has been a member of the House during the past four years, and is an expert on taxation. With Frank Whittemore, of Akron, former speaker pro tem of the House, and just elected to the Senate, he framed the law that repealed the Warne's tax law. Cox put over four years ago and under which the Democrats began the building of a state political machine through appointive assessors. After the supreme court declared invalid both the Whittemore and Warne's laws.

Parrett was a member of the special bipartisan committee that drew the present tax law. He was at one time managing editor of the Columbus Press-Post and is now engaged in farming on a large scale in Fayette county.

And again speaking of the gigantic task of framing new and sufficient tax laws to meet the changed conditions, the especial fitness of Mr. Parrett for the leadership is urged in these words:

If the final count of the votes cast at Tuesday's election shows the constitutional amendment for classification of property adopted a large part of the next legislature session must be devoted to taxation measures. Such legislation is likely to be framed by senators, since in that house there will be three experts on taxation, Parrett, Whittemore, and William Agnew, of Cleveland, all of whom have had a share in drafting the present laws.

The Republicans elected to the Assembly are specifically pledged to legislation for the financial relief of cities and of schools of the state.

Nothing is of more vital interest to state and citizens alike than the subject of taxation and tax laws and Ohio is face to face with the most serious financial problem of its existence. The revenue receipts are curtailed and from every section of the state the cry of shortage of public funds is arising and the demand for relief insistent.

Something must be done. What?

BURGLARS OBTAIN HARDWARE GOODS

Burglars entered the Fogel hardware store in the I. O. O. F. building some time during Tuesday night, and carried away $150 worth of knives, razors, revolvers and silverware.

The burglars gained entrance through the basement doorway and left no clew behind them.

RECOGNIZES POLAND IN WAR

IGNACE PADEREWSKI

The Polish Army, under the supreme political authority of the Polish National Committee, has been recognized by the United States Government as autonomous and independent, according to an announcement made by Secretary Lansing in a letter sent to Roman Dmowski, president of the Polish National Committee, who is at present in Washington. A large part of the Polish force which is under the command of General Josef Haller was recruited in the United States under the direction of Ignace Paderewski, who according to reports, has been selected by the people of Poland to be the first President of the Republic which is about to be formed.

Riga, Libau and Windau, the three Baltic Sea ports embraced in the Lettish territory formerly handled almost one-half of Russia's total import and export trade and are of prime commercial importance.

It is the desire of Lettis to have their independence under the international guarantee of neutrality. A national council has been organized to resist all movements to make a German principality out of Courland and Livonia. This council is urging that Russia's inability to defend the Baltic coast makes it imperative that it should be protected by international action and kept clear as a pathway from the West to the East.

THE KAISER IN FLIGHT

(By Associated Press Cable)

Maastricht, Holland, Monday, November 11.—Amid excavations from 2000 Belgian refugees, the former

German emperor's special train left at 10 this morning, northward bound.

A tremendous crowd of sightseers had gathered, but the platform was strongly cordoned and William

Hohenzollern did not show himself.

His destination is said to be Amerongen, about two miles from Utrecht, where Count Bentinck has a country seat. But it is not possible to say where he will finally remain, for, in order to avoid the curious, he may have to keep to the train for a couple of days.

October 8, 1918, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Brown of this city, informs them that a number of Fayette county boys are in good health and enjoying life in the war zone. His interesting letter follows:

October 8, 1918, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Washington C. H., Ohio.

My Dear Friends:

Last evening as I was leaving my office for my room, a young soldier boy asked me for a paper. I returned with him for a daily paper. I found that he was from Ohio and belonged to the same division to which some of the Washington boys belonged. I asked him if he knew Ronald Dick and he said "I certainly do." He told Ronald today and late this afternoon Ronald came to see me. I almost cried with joy. I assure you that Ronald was as happy as I. He had told the other boys about my being near but none of them could come today. I want to assure you that Ronald is looking well and is really happy. I know how parents feel about their children when in a far off land. Ronald informs me that all the boys except Harold Counts are well and happy. Harold has a bad cold and thought that he had better remain in today. Will you tell the parents or loved ones of the other boys. The boys are:

Fred Pine, Hubert Murray, Donald Moore, Mortimer Clasgens, Orland Hays, Harold Counts, Lawrence Fletcher, Will Minter.

I am busy all the time. I shall be removed from my present work within the next few days. Where I shall be I cannot tell. I wrote my wife recently my experiences under shell fire. One "dud" struck about five feet from me and one big Fritz landed only a few yards. The hole made was large enough to bury two horses. I was on a motor truck at the time. We spent no time then to examine or survey the country.

The Y. M. C. A. is doing a great work. I am happy to be connected with such a fine organization.

Wishing you the best success. I remain,

Your friend,

O. K. PROBASCO,

Mail addressed to me in care of American Y. M. C. A., 12 Rue d' Aguesseau, Paris, will reach me.
